

WEEK'S NEWS.

Local and Personal Happenings.

W. P. Dutton of Portland is in the city.

Fresh ice cream every day at the Palm.

Gus Wilcox is in Portland this week.

Try our sundaes, the best in the city—the Palm.

Ralph Beckett of Rhea creek was in the city Monday.

Wanted—Sewing to do, plain or fancy. Mrs. Ralph Jones.

John Huston was in town from his Eight Mile home Tuesday.

Harry Dinges of Lexington, made this city a call on Tuesday.

We have an abundance of old papers for sale at this office.

Anson Wright of Hardman was a Friday visitor in this city.

Jack McCollough was in town from his foot-hill farm on Saturday.

Lone Rock is making elaborate preparations for a 4th of July celebration.

Palmer Brunton is now working in the machine shop of the Heppner Garage.

Mrs. D. E. Gilman returned home on Saturday from a visit of several weeks in Portland.

The City Meat Market would call special attention to valuable advertising in this issue of the G-T.

M. V. Logan, of Cecil, was doing business in Heppner on Tuesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Logan.

Walter Drum and family were Heppner visitors from their home in the Parkers Mill section on Tuesday.

Miss Hannah Bergstrom returned to her Eight Mile home Monday after spending the past several months in Heppner.

Harold Wigmore returned to his home in Eugene Monday after visiting for a few days with his brother in this city.

A. A. Willis, former Morrow county farmer, is here with his two sons to remain until after harvest. Mr. Willis lives at Newberg.

Mrs. Cora Knotts of Pilot Rock is visiting with relatives and friends in this city. Mrs. Knotts was formerly Miss Cora Shipley.

Sherman Shaw has been confined to his room the past week on account of sickness. He is feeling much better at this time.

Miss Ruby Corrigan, daughter of M. S. Corrigan of Butter creek, has accepted a position with the First National Bank of Heppner.

Rev. T. S. Handsaker, of the First Christian church, acted in the capacity of supply pastor at Cottage Grove, where he held services last Sunday.

J. S. Young, farmer of upper Eight Mile was in town the latter part of last week. He reports crop conditions excellent in his neighborhood.

Carpet Weaving—For good weaving bring your work to the Heppner weaver. Rag rugs and rag carpets a specialty. Residence back of the Catholic church. 1m.

A. L. Sparling, accompanied by his wife, departed on Saturday for Portland, it being his intention to be absent from Heppner until about the middle of August.

Dr. Crutchfield of Columbia Junior College at Milton was in the city over the week-end and conducted services at the Methodist church, South, on Sunday.

A. M. Phelps departed for La Grande on Sunday and spent a few days in that city in attendance at the convention of Retail Grocers in session there this week.

Miss Marie Hager has returned home from Eugene, where she has been attending the University of Oregon. Miss Hager will spend the summer months in this city.

Judge Henry L. Benson and Justice Charles McNary are now tied in their race for the Supreme Court nomination. They will either draw lots or demand an entire recount.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Farnsworth were outgoing passengers on Tuesday, Mrs. Farnsworth going to Portland direct, and Mr. Farnsworth leaving for a trip up the Deschutes river.

Joseph Putnam, rancher and stock-raiser of the Monument section, was in Heppner several days this week, going home in a new Ford purchased at the Heppner Garage of Albert Bowker.

Oscar Keithley and family remained in Heppner over Saturday night after attending the picnic at Lexington. They returned to their Eight Mile home Sunday afternoon. Mr. Keithley looks for a big crop this year.

E. B. Stanton and wife are down from Walla Walla on a visit to relatives here. They expect to go on to the Willamette valley for a stay of some weeks. Mr. Stanton has been in poor health for some time but is now somewhat improved.

At Ione on July 4th the ladies of the Christian church will serve dinner in the basement of the church all day long. It will be good home cooking and if you are in our sister city on that day celebrating, give them a call and get your dinner.

Wilford Meadows, a former Heppner boy, is visiting with relatives and friends in this city this week. This is his first visit here since he moved to Portland three and a half years ago. Mr. Meadows has a good position with the Portland Laundry company, having already been in their employ over two years. He notes many improvements in Heppner during his absence. Among them he mentions the street lights, the new school building and the Heppner Garage. Mr. Meadows was formerly engaged in the livery stable business with his father, S. W. Meadows, in this city.

Terah Mahoney, nephew of T. J. Mahoney, cashier of the First National Bank, who has been bookkeeper and stenographer at the bank for more than a year past, left for Portland on Tuesday morning for a visit of a few days with his parents. From there he will go to Butte, Montana, where he has accepted a position with a wholesale produce firm. Mr. Mahoney is a bright and competent young man and will make good wherever he goes. He had made many friends during his stay in Heppner who wish him the greatest success for the future.

Dr. E. R. Hunlock, while being interested in the selling of accident insurance, is also offering to our people here an opportunity to invest in the stock of the Oregon Black Marble Co., of Joseph. According to the report of the State Geologist, the finest body of black marble in existence is located in Wallowa county near Joseph, and this company has been formed to work the quarry and put the product on the market.

S. A. Simpson, wife and child are visiting at the home of Mr. Simpson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Simpson in this city. Mr. Simpson's home is at Medaryville, Ind., where he is in the hotel business. He was formerly a resident of Oregon, living at Milton about 16 years ago. Mr. Simpson and family will remain here about six weeks before returning to their eastern home.

Mrs. Harry Cummings departed this week for Portland, being accompanied by her two daughters. She goes to take care of her aged mother who is in poor health and living alone. Mrs. Cummings will live with her mother during her remaining years. Mr. Cummings and his son Gilbert will remain in Heppner and take care of their nursery here.

Sheriff Wm. Welch of Grant county came to Heppner on Saturday after Billy Stanley, wanted in that county on a charge of horse rustling and who had been taken in charge by the officials of Morrow county. The sheriff of Grant county came to Heppner by way of Baker and returned with his prisoner over the same route on Sunday.

Prof. S. E. Nelson, accompanied by Mrs. Nelson, departed on Saturday last for Salem where they are attending a meeting of the county school superintendents this week, and where Mr. Nelson will also act on the board of examiners and help in grading the papers of those who recently took the teachers' examinations.

William P. Butler, assistant highway engineer, of Salem, spent several days in Morrow county this week. In company with Judge C. C. Patterson he traversed some of our highways to get an idea of what we need in the line of improved road conditions. He is a young man of practical ideas as to road construction.

A grand Fourth of July celebration will be held at the Jack Devore grove on Rhea creek again this year. A long and interesting program is being prepared, which will include, among other things, foot races, horse races, bucking contests, a tug of war on horse back and dancing. See the advertisement in another column.

E. E. Rugg, of Rhea creek, was a pleasant caller at this office on Monday. He is advertising in another column, ten head of stray horses that have come to his ranch on the creek. Mr. Rugg also left a dollar and a half with the editor for a year's subscription to Morrow county's leading news medium.

Dr. N. E. Winnard returned from Portland Monday morning with a new Maxwell car. The Winnard & Hayes Garage Co. have secured the agency for this automobile. They will also carry a full line of automobile supplies, as well as conducting a livery service.

Condon Times: Oscar Kelsey, Sheriff of Wheeler county, motored through town on his way to Heppner on Monday night to get a witness in a case being tried in Wheeler county. Harry Fitzmaurice and Frank Smith accompanied him from Condon on the trip.

H. A. Naegle of Portland, is the new mechanic at the Winnard & Hayes garage on May street. Mr. Naegle has been following the automobile business for several years, having recently been in the employ of the Ford company at their plant in Portland.

J. A. Adams was down from Hardman on Tuesday. He has recently moved back to Hardman with his family from Corvallis where his children have been in school, and will remain for the summer months to care for his farm and harvest his crops.

A junior Holt combined harvester passed through Heppner last week. It was being hauled to the farms of Wilkins and McClintock of Gooseberry, who will use the same in harvesting their 1914 grain crop.

Miss Leah Minor went to Portland Friday.

Mrs. Jim Carty and children were in the city Monday.

Rev. W. T. Goulder went to the Junction last Monday.

J. C. Owens was down from Hardman the first of the week.

Rufus Cochran of Ione was a Heppner visitor on Friday.

George Giddens of Ione was a week-end visitor in Heppner.

Alex Lindsay was in town from his ranch near Ione on Friday.

Tilden Williams of Eight Mile was a Heppner visitor on Saturday.

Rev. Ferris spent Wednesday and Thursday of this week in Portland.

Olaf Bergstrom, prominent Eight Mile farmer was in the city Monday.

J. R. Olden and wife of Rhea creek spent Saturday night in this city.

E. D. Rood is in the city from Portland looking after his business interests.

T. S. Weeks was down from the Hamilton ranch on business Saturday.

A. L. Ayers of Parkers Mill was in the city yesterday, accompanied by Mrs. Ayers.

E. R. Huston of Eight Mile, democratic nominee for county clerk, was in our town on Wednesday.

J. T. Ayers, a prominent farmer of near Galloway, was transacting business in Heppner Monday.

Emerson Keithley and family were visitors in this city on Friday from their home on Eight Mile.

Sherman Wakefield was in from his ranch southwest of town yesterday, transacting business.

If you want spring chicken for Sunday dinner, leave orders on Friday. Peoples' Cash Market.

Chas. Cox and wife moved into the property recently vacated by Hank Vance and wife the past week.

Albert Bowker, the Heppner Garage man, received another carload of Fords from Portland last week.

Margaret Mae, daughter of Rev. Ferris, is a guest at the Federated church parsonage for some weeks.

M. T. Gentry and family this week the corner of Church and Gale streets corner of Church and Gale streets.

While absent during the past week Dr. N. E. Winnard attended the meeting of the Eastern Oregon Medical Society at Pendleton.

Jos. Hayes was in from his Butter creek ranch on Monday. Since Joe has bought a Buick, it doesn't take him all day to make a round trip.

Prof. W. C. Howard, with Columbia College at Milton the past year, has been engaged as principal of the Stanfield school for the coming year.

Mrs. William Miller, of Medford, is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Goulder, old-time friends and will remain in Heppner for a couple of weeks.

W. W. Smead was a passenger to Pendleton on Tuesday, going over there to look into the wool situation and to get a lineup on some future business.

Friends of Mrs. Wilson Brock of Pendleton will be pleased to learn that she is rapidly recovering from an operation which she underwent a few days ago.

Reld Bros. are moving a lot of cord wood to their yards in town. They cut about 400 cords during the winter and will market a large portion of it in Heppner.

W. C. Howard and family of Milton, are at the home of Mrs. Howard's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adkins on Rhea creek where they will remain during the summer.

Regular services as usual at the Christian church on Sunday, June 28. Rev. T. S. Handsaker, pastor, will preach both morning and evening and a welcome is extended to all not worshipping elsewhere.

Last week seven society women of Medford gave 150 square inches of skin from their bodies to save the life of a little three year old child. None of them took an anesthetic for the operation. They ask that their names be withheld.

Morrow county will receive $699.48 from the State of Oregon for its fair fund this year. This is according to an apportionment made by Secretary of State Olcott of the tax raised under the county fair bill passed by the last legislature.

Rev. J. W. Fleisher and family left this morning for Twin Falls, Idaho, where Mr. Fleisher has taken up the work as pastor of the M. E. church. His family has been visiting for several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ball, the parents of Mrs. Fleisher.

Hermiston Herald: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Boyer of Heppner, were guests at the Root home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Root returned to Heppner with them, Mr. Root finding a business trip to the Morrow county seat necessary. Mrs. Boyer and Mrs. Root attended Willamette University together.

Believed to be the victim of enemies he made while mayor of Copperfield, from which position he was removed by Governor West in December, Henry H. Stewart was shot twice and probably fatally wounded by an unidentified person or persons while building a fence on his ranch near Copperfield. One bullet penetrated his abdomen below the ribs. No hope for his recovery is held out.

What Your Tailor?

Are You Seeking Tailoring?

Then consider the question of quality as well as cost. Investigate the satisfaction and service-value found in tailored-to-order clothes. Don't let anyone sell you who can't deliver the goods. Quality is as quality does, when it comes to tailoring.

Ed. V. Price & Co.

Style and service spell satisfaction in clothes you get here. See our new woollens and leave your measure—TODAY. Prices reasonable.

See Minor & Co. About It

MINOR-COOK.

Mr. and Mrs. William Oscar Minor announce the marriage of their daughter, Leah, to Dr. George Frederick Cook, Monday, June the twenty-second, nineteen hundred and fourteen, at Portland, Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Cook will be at home after August first at Bellingham, Washington.

Mrs. Cook is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Minor of this city and is an accomplished young lady. Dr. Cook is a prominent physician of Bellingham. The young couple will spend their honeymoon in the East on a visit with friends and relatives.

JACKSON-BALL.

George W. Jackson of this city and Miss Virginia Lucile Ball of Sumpter, were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ball on Sunday, June 21.

Mrs. Jackson is a graduate of this year's graduating class of the Sumpter High School, and Mr. Jackson has been in the employ of the United States Forest reserve service in this city for the past several months. He was stationed at Sumpter last summer. Mr. Jackson is a native of Ohio. The young people are at home to their friends in the Jones residence on Wills street.

THE FEDERATED CHURCH.

"Why are we in Heppner?" theme of sermon by Rev. Ferris on next Lord's Day morning. Floral decorations and good music are special features. The message adapted to all.

A most cordial invitation is extended. Our young people will occupy the evening hour with a special program of music and readings. The pastor will assist. Your presence is requested. 8 o'clock is the hour.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who so kindly extended sympathy and aid in the time of our bereavement.

W. E. Wigglesworth.
Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Wigglesworth.
Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Turner.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Gates and Mr. Sam Gates departed by auto for Spokane, the home of Sam Gates, after spending a couple of days in Heppner.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bears the Signature of Dr. J. C. Watson

BOWERS' SHOE REPAIRING SHOP.

We have just opened up for business in the Garrigues Building on Main Street.

We will treat you fair and will appreciate a share of your patronage.

We Can Do All Kinds of Repair Work.

WE ARE ALWAYS HAMMERING AWAY TRYING TO PLEASE OUR CUSTOMERS BY GIVING THEM HONEST HARDWARE FOR THEIR HONEST MONEY.

DON'T LOSE YOUR TEMPER USING POOR TOOLS. BUY OURS; THEY ARE PROPERLY TEMPERED.

POOR TOOLS ARE A POOR INVESTMENT. BUY OUR GOOD TOOLS AND MAKE A GOOD INVESTMENT.

BUY THE "DIAMOND EDGE" KIND. EVERY ONE GUARANTEED, AND YOUR MONEY BACK WITHOUT ANY QUESTIONS IF YOU ARE NOT SATISFIED.

COME AND SEE US.

Gilliam & Bisbee

HEPPNER, OREGON